- If your chapter is attending the Foundation night at the YMCA, be sure to have your students bring a towel from home. Please do not take towels from the hotel!!
- Please be sure to remind students to be respectful that there are people staying in the Marriott who are not connected to FCCLA.
- On Monday at the Marriott - Red Blazers will be available to try on for sizing
- A&A will have a sales table set up at the Marriott and Century II. Check out their merchandise flyer attached to the email.
- Please note that District Officers and Peer Education members are exempt from the 30-minute check in time for STAR Events if your competition time is scheduled between 10:00 and 11:00 am.
- We will be offering the Miracle Minute during SLC at Century II. Be sure to bring change and cash to donate to the NICU at Wesley Medical Center. A Ziploc bag will be in your adviser packets to collect change in.

- For our Community Service project of Protecting the Ohana, we will be collecting non-perishable food items to support families in Kansas. Drop your donations off directly at the Kansas Food Bank or drop them off behind the LEO displays on Monday evening at Century II.
- Advisers with students registered for LEO's! Make sure to review the information in the LEO Packet inside of your registration materials. This packet gives instructions for dropping off LEOs as well as the nametag ribbons that members must wear when dropping off their LEOs.
- There will be track sessions available for Advisers, please be sure to read the program to know when they are available.
- There will NOT be tickets utilized for the Breakout Sessions. Advisers - please communicate with your students on which sessions, they should be attending so you can collaborate and review the information shared following SLC.
- All materials have been uploaded to the website for easy access.

See you at 2025 SLC!
