

Kansas Family, Career, and Community Leaders of America
Honorary Membership Honor Nomination Form

(Revised January 2025)

Membership in this organization shall be of three kinds:

- (1) Active          (2) Associate          (3) Honorary

Honorary Membership is to be granted to an individual who has helped to advance family and consumer sciences program(s) or has rendered outstanding service to the Family, Career, and Community Leaders of America. Honorary members may wear the official FCCLA pin.

The levels of Honorary Membership are:

- (1) Chapter          (2) District          (3) State          (4) National

A committee should be set up on the chapter level to select persons deserving of Honorary Membership at the chapter level.

A committee should also be set on the district level. Names submitted from chapters in a given district would be reviewed by this committee and worthy candidates would be selected for Honorary Membership at the district level.

A committee assembled by the state Vice President of Recognition will determine the Kansas FCCLA Honorary Memberships. Each chapter is eligible to submit the names of two qualified persons. To be considered for honorary membership in the State Association, an individual should have helped to advance the family and consumer sciences program and/or have rendered outstanding service to FCCLA. A list of criteria used for selection of state honorary members is included below. Please consider it carefully.

- A teacher who has given at least one year' of service to family and consumer sciences and FCCLA
- A community member who has been actively interested in youth and promoted FCCLA and family and consumer sciences beyond the district level
- A community member who has given freely of his/her time and services and has been actively involved in and support of FCCLA beyond the district level

Each district officer is asked to make sure her/his chapter submits a name for district honorary membership. They are also asked to encourage honorary memberships within their chapters and help the district in selecting candidates for possible state honorary membership.

We beseech you to be enthusiastic and recognize those persons who make your activities in FCCLA possible by submitting their names for honorary membership.

Nominations for Kansas FCCLA Honorary Membership may be submitted by any affiliated chapter, affiliated member, adviser, or decision-making body.

This application must be emailed to sdandres@ksu.edu no later than February 20th:

Please note that the Honorary Membership honor will be presented to those FCCLA non-members whose actions have promoted and/or exemplified the goals of Kansas FCCLA. An unrestricted number of individuals will receive this award each year.
